

Michigan Freedom of Information Act – Request for Public Records

Agency disclosure of information focuses on the citizen's right to be informed about what their government is up to. Official information that sheds light on an agency's performance of its statutory duties falls squarely within the statutory purpose. That purpose, however, is not fostered by disclosure of information about private citizens that is accumulated in various governmental files that reveals little or nothing about the agency's own conduct. (United States Supreme Court, 425 US 352 (1976).
